OUR FRIEND IAN

is going into 'Respite Care' for one week from today until the 26th February when he will return home. He is going into Lilac Lodge for respite and anyone can go and visit him if they wish. If anyone would like to go and visit Ian they will be more than welcome at any time. It would be nice for Ian to have visitors; he would appreciate that very much. Jean

Pause for thought – 'Friendship'

"I keep my friends as misers do their treasure because, of all the things granted us by wisdom, none is greater or better than friendship."

'WELCOME'

'LOVE YOUR FRIENDS AND YOUR ENEMIES'

19th February
2017

We welcome you to worship today. If you are new to this Church or to the area, please help us to get to know you as quickly as possible by filling in one of the yellow cards in the ends of pews and handing it in. A large print version is available, if needed, at the back of the church. A special welcome to any visitors who are with us today. Do join us for coffee or tea in the lounge after the morning service.

Preparation for Worship

The steward will come in 5 minutes before worship and give out any notices. They will light the candle and then lead us in the reading of the Collect for the day from the newsletter. There will then be a time of quietness when we can centre our thoughts on God as a preparation for worship.

COLLECT:-

Amen

BIBLES

You have all had the chance to see and perhaps use the new bibles, and I know that some of you would now like to order one for your own use. I shall be putting in another order soon, so if you would like to buy either a standard copy or large print copy of the NRSV that we are using in church please add your name to the list on the notice board. Rev Christine
